National League of Junior Cotillions®

2021 Summer Newsletter

Dear Directors,

I hope all of you enjoyed your 4th of July weekend and the many warm days of summer to come. I, along with the rest of the staff, have loved seeing you promote your registration on media platforms and your work efforts for the growth and development of the organization are admirable.

Here is what is happening with NLJC Corporate:

- New Director Training- July 31-August 1
- Director Seasonal Kick-Off Packet coming soon
- Development of new tools for Local Public Relations

We will be sharing details surrounding each of these things in the near future!

It is utterly amazing to consider the progress that we have made as an organization but most importantly you as a director of your chapter despite the obstacles that last season offered. As you step into this next cotillion season take pride in the work you have put into your business and know that NLJC supports you in all aspects.

Welcome to the NLJC Network of Directors

Suzette Wimpy is the new Director of the Nashville and Williamson County Chapters. Below is more about her story of starting with NLJC.

Suzette Wimpy lives in Franklin, TN and has resided in the area for the last 20 years. She is married to Kevin Wimpy. She has earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in Marketing and Management with a minor in speech communications. Suzette is extremely active in her community and has served in several capacities.

She has previously been a Girl Scout Troup Leader in the area and has also operated as a Board Member for Made in the Streets Ministry based in Nairobi, Kenya serving as Chair of the Fundraising Committee. Additionally, Suzette currently volunteers as a nursery worker at Otter Creek Church and she serves as a volunteer with Graceworks Ministries.

Moreover, she is currently the co-owner of Kevin Wimpy Portraits and has upheld the title of photographic portrait artist for the past 20 years. Kevin and Suzette became involved with Junior Cotillion in 2010 when the couple was asked to take over formal portraiture at the Nashville and Williamson County Chapters' Grand Spring Balls. Both of their daughters, Presley and Hannah, have completed the two year Junior Cotillion Program and they look forward to working with their parents to teach manners, etiquette and social dance.

Update!

Married the best man I've ever met.

Had the most beautiful wedding that was only made possible through the kindness and generosity of so many family, friends, and even strangers.

Just got back to reality this weekend and will send all the class details and fall info soon!

Cotillion in the Community

Cindy Oates is the Director of the Wake County as well as the Wilmington Chapters. She recently had the opportunity to visit the University of North Carolina Wilmington and spend time with their basketball team. During their time, Cindy shared with the team about several relevant etiquette topics embedded within the Junior Cotillion curriculum. A few that she was able to cover involved introductions, table manners.

professionalism, and more. Way to go Cindy!
